

When shopping on your smartphone or mobile device, you should take the same security measures as you would on a desktop

Update your phone's software and retail apps to strengthen your device's defences

Only download retail apps from reputable sources, such as Google Play, Apple or Microsoft – and do your homework before downloading them

Check which permissions you allow when installing new apps.

Information Security. Made Bearable.
security.berkeley.edu/toolkits